INTRODUCTION

- Greeting Good morning everyone.
- Name My name is XXX XXXXXX. I am a second year student at University of Art and Culture. I am majoring in International Culture.
- Topic Today, I'd like to talk about the Louvre Museum.
- Purpose The purpose of this presentation is to persuade you to visit the Louvre Museum.
- Length This presentation should last about 7 minutes.
- Outline I'm going to give you 3 main reasons why you should go to the Louvre.
- The first reason why you should visit the Louvre is that the museum has a large variety of arts.
- The second reason why you should visit the Louvre is that the museum has an attractive building.
- And the last reason why you should visit the Louvre is that the museum offers good service.
- Questions Please feel free to ask me some questions at the end of my presentation.
- (transition) Okay. Let me begin with why you should visit the Louvre.

BODY

Topic Point 1 The first reason why you should visit the Louvre is that the museum has a large variety of arts.

support of point 1 The museum has 35,000 works of art.

support of point 1 There are many famous works of art.

support of point 2 The building is historically valuable.

In 12c--- was constructed by king of France. He used it as the place where he stock weapons.

In 14c--- became a royal residence and became a castle.

In 18c--- opened to the public and it became a museum.

support of point 2 The museum has a lot of nature.

The Tuileries & Carrousel garden

The oldest and largest park (over 26 hectares) in Paris.

Open-air sculpture museum

(French sculpture from the 17th century to the present day)

(transition) In the Louvre museum, you can see not only arts but also beautiful castle and garden. There is another reason why I recommend you to visit the Louvre.

The helpful service will ensure you have a good experience.

Topic Point 3 The last reason why you should visit is that the museum offers good service.

support of point 3 You can take pictures. (without flash) support of point 3 Audio and written guides are available in your language.

audio guide in many languages including English and Japanese.

written guides in each room.

support of point 3 Good facilities

5 restaurants and cafes in the museum.

(transition) Because the museum offers good service, you will enjoy your visit without feeling uncomfortable.

CONCLUSION

Summary Now let me just summarize the three reasons why you should visit the Louvre museum. Besides a large variety of arts you can see, the building itself is attractive and the museum offers good service.

Final Comment I hope I have persuaded all of you to consider visiting the Louvre someday, and see the castle and the many works of art with your own eyes.
